Goals

Code	Goal
C1	Right after graduation from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, a veterinarian can start to exercise his or her learned profession on his or her own. Therefore, the graduate must have basic knowledge about the principles of the veterinary profession, limitations in its performance and legal liability associated with the performance of medical and veterinary activities. During the course, students will learn about the sources of professional, civil and criminal liability of vets. They will become aware of the rules of performing the profession and providing veterinary services, and formulating opinions.
